“ I am biased, yes, but I have never seen two more people who loved each other and absolutely adored each other. Married for over 60 years Dad protected Mom with his very being. The respect he had for her and devoted his life to her. Growing up when any of us kids would say "she" Dad would respond "Your Mother is not a pronoun!" I'll never forget the example they both set for our family and everyone around them with true humility and love. They loved and served God everyday, reading their Bible every day, going to church and just doing what is right on a daily basis. Mom and Dad...you will be sorely missed but I will see you both in heaven someday. I love you both!!!

“ I could right a book of all the amazing memories I had with my grandparents. I will especially miss grandpa's hugs and saying "how's my number one granddaughter?" I loved them so much and will miss them dearly. ❤️ I'm so glad they got to meet their great grandchildren. -Amanda Masker

“ You are a very special family, Tempers, and I count that as one of the many things your parents did for you in their lives. I know that they did their very best for you and I know that it gives you comfort to at least know that they are sharing a glorious time in Heaven and together. I pray for God to comfort you in your losses and good memories to come to mind every time you think of them. God bless and keep you. Lisa & Steve Abel
