Treasured great-grandfather of Kaydan, Olivia, & Rosemary

Dear brother of Frank (Marlene Celusnak)

He will also be missed by many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Charles is preceded in death by his parents and brothers, John & Bernard Celusnak.

Chuck proudly served his country in the U.S Navy and he fought on D-Day in Normandy, Omaha beach during World War II, and also in the Korean War. He retired from General Motors as a Traffic Manager and he was a long time parishioner of Ss. Cyril & Methodius Church in Detroit, MI, as well as Ss. Cyril & Methodius Slovak Catholic Church in Sterling Heights, MI. Chuck enjoyed many things:

Gardening, the Detroit Tigers, fishing, just to name a few. But family was the most important to him. He was married to his loving wife, Julie, for nearly 71 years and they had six daughters. He devoted himself to his marriage, his children, and his home. After family, Chuck dedicated himself to the church. To say he was just a parishioner does not begin to describe it. From welcoming priests arriving from Europe, planning festivals and picnics, running Bingo, handling many and varied financial responsibilities to managing the building of a rectory to a full prayer life of adoration, rosary, novenas and devotions, Chuck's dedication never faltered. We can think of no greater way to say it than this: "Well done, good and faithful servant..." Rest now in peace.
