“ To the Family of our Dear Cousin Chuck:

Oh how Chuck is going to be missed by his family and many dear friends. We enjoyed his sense of humor so much! And he always had such a fabulous "outlook on life".

When Rose and Chuck learned that we were leaving Westland, MI and moving to San Jose, California the two of them met us at their Aunt Ann Martinsky's home in Redford, MI to wish us farewell. That evening has been a fond memory of ours many times for 45 years now.

Both Chuck and wife Rose are beautiful people. Always thinking of others! Our hearts go out especially to Rose who is going to miss her husband very much.

Rest In peace dear cousin Chuck!

“ Uncle Chuck was full of life and love. Not only was he a great dancer, he was an avid golfer. I used to love hearing about his accomplishments on the links. I used to look forward to seeing him at the Natural Open, teaming up with my late Uncle Ron. We always had fun when Chuck was around.
