

Charles Hart

August 13, 2023

Charles Michael Hart was a husband, father, brother and grandfather. He was married to Mary Ann for 57 years and had two children and five grandchildren. He was a mechanical engineer who studied at Wayne State University. Upon graduation, he proudly worked on the successful launch of the first U.S. satellite. Afterwards, he worked at Ford Motor Company for 40 years. He completed his career as a computer graphics engineer where he helped pioneer the use of advanced mathematics and FORTRAN computer code to create software to generate 3 dimensional models of auto body surfaces. He loved shooting pistols and had a very quick draw which was honed over many years of practice. He also loved books of advanced mathematics and the martial arts. He was passionate about exercise and alternative medicine. He will be dearly remembered and missed by many.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the American Diabetes Association.
