

Cheryl Hajdo

April 30, 1949 - January 5, 2024

Cheryl Lee (Napper) Hajdo was born April 30, 1949 to parents Lloyd and Elizabeth (Ramey) Napper. On October 15, 1966, she married the love of her life Ed Hajdo where they spent 57 happy years together, before she passed away January 5, 2024 with loved ones by her side.

Cheryl had a smile that would light up the room. She always gave a helping hand. She loved to sing and dance. She enjoyed puzzle games, like tetris and playing cards. Cheryl enjoyed entertaining and having a full house, the more the merrier. She cherished her family, and was always there when they needed her. Taking care of people came naturally. She loved raising babies and being around the little ones. Cheryl played an important role in her family's lives: mothering her siblings, being a mother to her son James, being an aunt, a grandma and a great- grandma. Cheryl has left behind many heavy hearts and many wonderful memories like: making Halloween costumes and special cakes, cooking good food, teaching the grandkids how to crochet and watching old sitcoms on TV land together, sitting around a table just talking with a full candy dish in the middle.

She is preceded in death by parents Lloyd & Elizabeth, brothers Christopher & Kevin, & sister Karen.

She is survived by her: husband Ed Hajdo, son James (Janell) Hajdo, brothers Larry (Linda), David (Pam), Mike (Nina), & Sister Debbie.

Grandchildren: Jackie, Alyssa, Jimmy, Nick, Tony, John, Hayley, Jayden, & Shaylynn. Great-Grandchildren: Leland, Parker, Hailey, De'arra, Elizabeth & Hendrix. As well as many nieces and nephews and great nieces & nephews.
