

Christina Fluder

November 3, 1933 - August 6, 2018

Fluder, Christina Eusebio Bonacorsi

Age 84. Beloved wife of the late Richard Fluder. Proud and loving mother of Randy (Rose) Bonacorsi, Tim Bonacorsi, Mark (Debbie) Bonacorsi, Steven (Doug Roberts) Bonacorsi, and Scott (Jennifer) Bonacorsi. Devoted Nonna to eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Cherished sister of Rose (Leo) Donini and the late Elaine (Dwight) Conger, and sister-in-law of Eugene Bonacorsi. Special aunt to her nieces and nephews.

Tina loved nothing more than spending time with her family. She lived for big gatherings where she could hold all the babies, tell stories old and new, and give the big pot of spaghetti sauce a proper stir. She took an interest in people wherever she went and made countless friends along the way. Her energy, caring nature and faithful phone calls will be missed by many.

Visitation on Saturday, August 18, at 10 am, followed by memorial service at 11 am.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider a donation to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ Oh! My dear tina, i learned of your passing from the bulleting board note at the community center today. I am saddened of this news. However, i am cherishing the time we shared, the lovely conversations, the hugs, the stories, the beauty in you. Oh! My tina, i have missed you these last few days, not seeing you, not knowing where you where. I show nuff will miss you going forward. Rest in peace my beautiful friend, and thank you tina for your friendship.

“ Nona, you were the true definition of grandmother. You loved us unconditionally, supported us, always made sure we were okay, always made sure to tell us what a great job we were doing in our roles as mothers, fathers and in our careers... and most importantly, being around you always felt like home, no matter where that home was. I can't put into words how much I miss you already.
