October 19, 1988 - March 24, 2026

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Christina Suliman, who left this world far too soon at the age of 37. Born to Harry and the late Cynthia on October 19th of 1988; beloved wife to Raed Suliman for 18 loving years; dear mother to Kamorah Suliman and Dominic (Grace) Suliman; treasured sister of Sheena; she is also survived by many cousins, family members and friends.

Christina was truly the life of the party. Her laughter was contagious and her presence could light up any room. A talented and passionate beautician, Christina and her husband Raed owned and operated their own salon in Warren, where her creativity in hair and make up shined to her community. More than just a business owner, she built meaningful relationships with her clients. Her chair was not only a place of beautify, but of comfort, laughter and connection.

Her faith was the foundation for her life and marriage. She was deeply involved in her church, Power and Praise Worship Center in Hazel Park, where she served as a high school youth ministry leader. Here she mentored and inspired countless young people with an unwavering devotion to God.

Above all, Christina was a devoted mother and wife. She poured her heart into their lives, especially in Kamorah's activities, where she would be found cheering from the stands.

Christina touched many lives through her kindness, generosity and selfless spirit. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends and community.

“ Christina will be missed. I loved going to visit her (at the salon) she knew exactly what I wanted. I remember the first time she cut my hair she was so nervous to take the 14 inches off but what she didn't realize is how grateful i was. Thank you Christina for always putting a smile on my face.

“ She carried her cross in this world and did it with a grin on her face every time I saw her. She was such a bright light.

Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed thru the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

“ Haven't stopped thinking about Christina all week. I've been going to her for my hair since I was a teenager. I've always hated small talk at any kind of beauty appointments but with Christina it was so different. She was always so so easy to get comfortable with and treated every one of her clients like they were her bestfriend. She was one of the kindest people on earth and God took her back to him too soon. She was laughing and smiling and so full of energy and every time I'd leave her salon chair I'd think "we need more souls like this on earth". Rest in peace angel.

“ This hurts my heart so much. What an amazing woman! I will always be grateful for the time she talked me through a hair crisis on her day off and told me how to fix it! Sitting in her chair brought warmth, comfort, laughs and the ultimate exceptance. It didnt matter what I said, she had a whitty comment that made every worry seem like small potatoes, I always left feeling like, ive got this! (With beautiful hair, of course!) I could go on and on but I want to leave big hugs for her family as you meant the world to her! ❤️

“ I remember the day I met you, I'm pretty sure it was your 13 birthday you were with shelli and here I was this shy nerdy girl. You guys instantly took me under your wing and were my best friend for years. You seen my kids grow and I've watched kammy grow into this gorgeous young girl. I just told you a few weeks ago that you were the strongest woman I know and that will forever be true. You battled cancer with such grace and I'm so proud of you babygirl! I wish I could be there Sunday to say good bye. You've been my biggest supporter, I love you, rest easy now.

“ I've known Christina since I was a baby, her and Aunt Cindy did everything for me! I haven't lived near her since I was a kid, but we've always stayed in contact. Also had conversations, she was such a lovely person to be able to have in my life! Condolences to the family & let God be with her. ♡

“ I always like to say I'm pretty empathic in this person. Christina was an amazing person. I could feel it in my soul when I talk to her. She's just so special and we never understand the reason why someone would be taken so young, but I guess God needed her and he is lucky because she was one of a kind ... but I absolutely hate that she has went to heaven because she's not here with her family, but she'll be watching above strong amazing human she was she's probably a even better angel
