“ *RIP Dearest Chris,
There are not enough words to express how sad it is you are no longer here. The reality of how fragile life really is --hit me hard learning of your passing. Chris (you) had the ability to bring out the best in people 'especially me'. You were always there to support me and believed in me, even in difficult times. I admired you so much. It helps finding comfort in knowing your devoted faith & Love For GOD. I know in my heart the Gates to heaven opened wide to welcome you.
You had the ability to bring the best out in people 'especially me'.
You made a difference on this earth & will continue to do so because your spirit will remain forever in those who knew & loved you. Rest In Peace Dearest Chris (my mentor)*

“ Christine Kuczara was a very outstanding individual. She had honor, intelligence, and wisdom. We called her Chris at work. She was my first Director when I began employment at the Detroit Medical Center in 1992. I learned so much from Chris, her integrity was most that I admired her for. She instilled that in me as well. Her lessons in billing and follow up made me really good at my job. I still hear her today " if it's wrong and you do it anyway you're guilty and can be held responsible". I will am so saddened at her passing. I will miss her and love her forever.
