“ Dear Ken, we loved having you & Chris as next door neighbors for the past 12 yrs. We also loved spending days with you both over the last few summers at your beautiful lake home in Clarkston where we, along with Emma & Will, enjoyed BBQ's, boating, rafting, swimming, etc.

Chris always had a big smile & kind words whenever we encountered her, even in her last days & weeks, which I will always remember & cherish. She will be greatly missed by all who were fortunate enough to know her!

Our deepest condolences to you Ken & all your family,
Leslie & Randy Alderson

“ My friend Steve had one of the nicest Mom's you could ask for. I remember throughout middle school and high school, hanging out over at the Tremonti residence playing ping pong, darts, video games, boxing (once) and just other general shenanigans. Mrs. T was always there with some food, a smile and nice conversation to brighten your day - even though I'm sure we were driving her, Mr. T (and probably Liz) nuts.

As I got older, it was wonderful to watch her and Mr. Tremonti become grandparents and see the joy and pride that they took in their grandkids.

Mr. Tremonti, Steve and Liz - I feel that Mrs. T truly made the world a better place and I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ We are so saddened by the loss of Chris. We had only really just begun to know her as a kind neighbor and friend, having only been neighbors for a few years so far. But, time spent with Chris was lovely and fun. Jen and Chris had many giggles together. We will surely miss our friendship with her. Ken, we are praying for you and your family in these difficult months ahead.

- With Sympathy, Jen and Scott Kolf

“ Chris has been a very dear friend since grade school. I will cherish every conversation and laugh that we shared. Ken, I'm sending love and hugs to you and your beautiful family. Chris told me often how blessed she felt having you and her children and grandchildren. Her life was fulfilled to the very end. Love, Linda Jacobs McMann
