Christopher Wayne Abercrombie Sr.

January 31, 1977- July 21, 2025

It is with the greatest sadness that we announce the unexpected passing of Christopher Wayne Abercrombie at age 48. Chris was a gentle soul, cherished family member, and loyal friend to many.

Chris was born in Warren Michigan and spent all his life in or near this hometown. He attended Centerline Schools, and worked in warehousing and then plastics molding while raising his son Christopher Jr as a devoted single parent. With a passion for the outdoors, he became an avid fisherman, skilled dirt bike rider and enjoyed camping with family whenever he could.

Both surviving parents are devastated by this loss, his father Andy Abercrombie (Becky) and his mother Mary Spezia (Kevin Yacheson). More than a son, to both he was also a friend and confidant.

Also left behind are his beloved son Christopher Jr. and baby daughter Rylee, the newest light of his life; brother and lifelong best friend Steven (Holly); three adoring nephews Jaxon, Ashdon and Korbyn; and uncle Bob Abercrombie, who has been an important and steady influence in his life. Many other aunts, uncles and cousins will miss him dearly.

Please join us to celebrate Chris' life on Tuesday, July 29th, 3 to 8 pm, with a short memorial service at 6:30. Mandziuk & Son Warren location, 22642 Ryan Road (at 9 Mile).
