“ My heart goes out to the family of Chris. He was a great guy. I met Chris when I was around 13 years old. I remember babysitting for him and Shellie for years. Sometimes, Shellie would pay me, and then Chris would pay me more and said “shh” and smiled. He was a great neighbor for so many years. After we moved, we stayed in touch. I went out to visit and ended up using his Pacifica to make a 1.5 hour drive to see my boyfriend. Well, crashed his car. I thought he would be so mad. He wasn't. He was so nice about everything. That's just the type of person he was. He was really nice. Well, unless the dishwasher wasn't loaded correctly lol. He had his own way of doing the dishes, but like the good guy he is, he did them. I also remember Chris saving my sisters life when she was losing too much blood. If it weren't for Chris she would have bled out and died. He held her the entire way to the ER and made sure her leg stayed at the exact angle and position it needed to. Those are the memories that stick out the most. I'm so sad to hear he's gone.

“ I've known Chris since high school. He was always the life of the party with his beautiful smile and infectious laugh. Many times we would not stop laughing because he was laughing, forgetting what we were originally laughing at. My deepest sympathies to family and friends with the death of our beloved Christopher. I miss my friend now and will miss him forever! He was a wonderful human being and I am deeply saddened by his passing. May he Rock and Roll forever.

*It is such sadness to know that Chris has passed away. He was always a cool person and great to work for and with. “ My Dearest Christopher, for 21 years we remained by each others side. We shared so much between us, both good and bad, sometimes until the wee hours in the morning. We never let any problem overcome us because together we were always able to defeat or overcome whatever came our way. We laughed till we cried many many times and most of the time people around us had no idea what we were laughing about, but we didn't care. You have been in "GOOD HANDS" for many years, now my dear dear friend you will be in the "BEST HANDS" forever. I love you dearly Chris and you will forever remain in my heart. I'll never forget the "US" we had.....

“ To the family of Chris Nosal, I know you already know what a remarkable person, father, friend and co-worker he was. I hope you also take comfort that we are all praying for you at this time as well. He loved his children with his old heart, and I was so Happy that he was able to have joy with Rosemarie the past few years. Never say too people smile so much.

I really got to know Chris when we both were made leaders and our leadership training was in Indy. Our education teacher then was just like on eof us. It ws the best of times. You would see as I love to call them my Chris x 2 (Boyd) together and we had great times each night. As our paths crossed through Allstate for his 32 years, we also spend nights with another dear friend JC playing Euchre for shots. I think Chris x 2 cheated a lot but it was ok. He got a kick out of my daughter being born on Christmas the same as he was, and she reminded him of that during her days as Allstate. Chris was loved by everyone he touch. His leadership style was a people person style. He was always there with that beautiful smile and a joke which is what I will miss the most. The saying God does not make mistakes, the Good Die Young are very hard for us here on earth, but he gained his wings as God has a better plan for him right now. Rest Peacefully my dear friend in Paradise until the day comes that we will met again. "YOUR WINGS WERE READY BUT MY HEART WAS NOT! YES ANOTHER ONE FROM OUR FAMILY HAS GONE TOO SOON!!! Hugs, Deb. “ He was a teammate, not a boss, even though that's how I always addressed him. He was one of the very few who never gave up on me. His guidance, advice, and belief in me, even through some of my most colossal screw ups, which there were many, served to help me through issues too numerous to itemize here. Inquiries between us on business matters more often than not quickly segued to casual conversation, about family first in brief and then about music which often resulted in large blocks of time that to our amazement became unaccounted for, but enjoyably spent. I am a better person for having him in my life and will smile when memories of him appear in my mind's eye. Sleep well, Boss.

“ I will never forget the first time he walked through the doors of Allstate, every woman in the building jaw dropped. We were sure we were all going to work with Billy Idol. He carried that name for so long. He was the sweetest guy who cherished his family. This is so hard to come to terms with, but we must move forward. Rest In Peace dear Chris! Karen Seitz

“ Chris was my boss when I retired almost 3 years ago, but most importantly he was a wonderful friend. He loved his kids beyond words and we both got a Knick out of comparing stories about his 4 and my 3. They kept him going! We all are going to miss such a big hearted and loving person.

“ I am still at a loss for words to express how sad I am. My heart goes out to his children. I didn't know the 3 youngest; but Jess, your dad and I worked closely when you were a little girl and he just beamed when he talked about you. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Chris and I met when he came to Allstate and I was asked to train him. I loved teasing him about Billy Idol and we both spoke smart aleck very easily. You always had a fun time and laughs around him and I'm so glad we kept our friendship when I went to sit. He made it seem like we saw each other every day even if it had been awhile, but he always knew who to call if he needed anything. I was so glad he did. He was smart and funny and the one you wanted if you could only have one friend. I'll always see him with a smoke and shoulder tilt and a smile that was contagious. He was one of the good guys that loved his kids and life. My heart is broken, as I know many feel the same, and I know no one will ever say my name in the same voice. I pray for all who loved him as I did to find peace. RIP
