“ Dear Waskul family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Christopher Waskul. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.

“ We are deeply saddened at the loss of Chris. We will always remember his humor, and compassionate spirit he had for those in need. Our prayers will always be with you. May Gods promise to us that he will never leave us, sustain you at this time and always. He is home now with our lord Jesus and there are no tears in heaven.

Gods Love to You,
Kathy and Kevin Koerber

“ Dear Family and Friends, I am so sad to hear of the passing of Chris . I picture him as that happy, hansom young fifth grader in my classroom at DeKeyser. He had such energy and curiosity . I know he will be greatly missed. I will keep you in my prayers and thoughts.

With Love and Hugs,
Sue Lurtz
