

Cindy Kolar

May 7, 1968 - January 20, 2023

Cindy Marie Kolar, age 54, passed away on January 20, 2023, after a 4 year battle with pancreatic cancer. Born to the late James and the late Jean Kolar on May 7th of 1968; dear sister to Michael (Barbara) and Dan (Johanna); cherished aunt to Kevin, Carolyn, Eric and Douglas; honorary aunt to Brandon, Kailynn, Jayden, Blake and Payton.

Cindy enjoyed spending time with her family. She spent summers in Caseville and winters in Cadillac. She loved snowmobiling and four-wheeling with her brothers and nephews. She loved sunsets and bonfires, laying out on the beach, catching frogs with the kids, walks in the woods and sharing funny stories. She enjoyed going to her nephews sporting and band events, and her nieces piano recitals. She liked playing a good game of Scattergories and pickle on the beach. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

“ Dear Cindy,
You graced us with your sweet smile
Your tenacity of hope Your appreciation of each moment.
I will remember the precious time we shared together watching a blazing sunset across the football field listening to crickets & marching band as we sat on a picnic table talking of joys & struggles and the precariousness of life Laughing at memories growing up and funny stories of our Dads.
You took such pride in your nieces & nephews wearing the hat of "Aunt" like a crown.
You loved angels and cardinals and never failed to show appreciation for any little kindness, Always with that brave smile so frail yet so strong.
You shared a realistic view of life and the future and had to deal daily with such uncertainty.
But now, I know with certainty
You are at Peace.
You have moved on to be part of the beautiful sunset colors and the singing of cardinals, Still connected to us by the love in our hearts for you.
May the arms of our Lord, and your Mom & Dad Receive you with comfort and Joy.

Love, your cousin Joanne
