“ It makes me so sad that she is gone. I feel like I have lost a piece of my childhood. We were best friends. I wish I could have done more to help her.

“ *I knew Claire when we were teens. Such a beautiful smile, and always a lot of fun! God bless her.
Prayers and deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Claire was the youngest of eight children. She was our baby Sister. She was schooled during her Elementary years at St. Veronica Catholic School and High School at East Detroit High School in Eastpointe, Michigan. Claire enjoyed special times with friends and family and liked family events and all parties. She was looking forward to her sixtieth birthday on March 8, 2018 and having a party to celebrate it. Claire always believed in peace and joy and wished this for everyone. She also believed in the power of prayer. She will be greatly missed by all her siblings and her nieces and nephews and loving friends. God speed, sweet Claire Therese Veronica. We love you! Your sister, Patricia Ann (Biernat) Gargulinski
