Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those
Who grieve, to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

“ *I remember when we went to her retirement home to introduce her to our granddaughter Jasmine. She was in the garden area for wine (grape juice) and music. We were waiting for the music to pause before we walked over to visit with Aunt Babe. She looked over at us waiting and she said, very loudly, "There's my Frankie. My Frankie is here." It put a smile on our faces as everyone in the room turned to look. We knew that she was having memory issues, but she recognized her nephew Frank. She was very much loved. And will be missed. “ Before my time and shared with me at a recent family gathering of the Bonacorsi siblings together in the earlier days. Good to know they are all together again. Their legacy is in each of us Bonacorsi and Pini's.

“ My most treasured memory(s) has been visiting Aunt Romi these past 10 years and we would reminisce about the days growing up on LeFever Street. She recalled how I loved her fried chicken and weekends her and Uncle John took us to their cottages at East Tawas or Harsens Island and how much fun that was to us kids! Your warm greeting, smiles and hugs will be missed. Love You Aunt Romi! ❤️
