“ I was going to share my fondest memory of Uncle Conrad but as I looked back at over 50 years of memories, I couldn't pick just one. All the Sunday dinners at Grandma and Grandpa's house, the sleep overs, holidays, birthdays, "no reason" parties, Communion, graduations, weddings, lawn mowing, or just stopping by, all my memories are wonderful and I will cherish every single one of them! My heart breaks for Aunt Alfreda, David, Alan, Julianne and their families. Uncle Conrad will truly be missed and will always hold a special place in my heart. All my love, Annie xo

“ Uncle Conrad. My Godfather. Always put a smile on my face, always offered to help or fix anything. I would say just buy a new one and he would say no I have something in the basement to fix it. I Love You and will miss you!

“ My grandpa will be so missed. He was a kind and thoughtful man that genuinely listened when people talked to him. I cannot even count how many times we had a discussion about something, and sure enough, when he saw an article or anything pertaining to that specific topic, he saved it and labeled it for me to read. My grandfather was the most organized and deliberate person I know, and I admired that about him so much. Losing a grandparent feels like losing one of the best extensions of yourself. His cheerful attitude and infectious smile will be missed by all. I pray for the day when our family can talk about him, and a smile will come first before the tears. I will love and miss my buddy forever.

“ My Grandpa was soft-spoken, inquisitive, observant, and always so intentional in the way he spoke. When I was younger, he would walk my brother Jozef and I to KFC by his house for lunch, and we'd play Uno, and watch lots of movies. I'm going to miss him and his questions, his thoughtful observations about life, and his quiet laugh. Love you gramps!!
