“ Connie you will be truly missed. When I was a little girl and saw you at family functions I always thought you were such a beautiful lady and through the years I came to realize that was so true, inside and out. You are now up above and will watch over your loving family and there will be no more suffering or pain for you. Rest in peace my dear cousin.

“Connie was such a wonderful lady. She would always pull me aside at Marvin, and Debbie's get togethers and have a drink with me. Even when it was hard for her to talk she would pull my close, and give me some of her wisdom. She sure made this world a better place! We will miss you! Love, Paul

“My mom putting on makeup everyday even through chemo, radiation and surgery. She wore her red lipstick into surgery getting a 26" titanium rod out in her hip and leg. She never gave up and looked beautiful the entire time. My mom is the most courageous person I know. I will miss everyday.
