“ Corey was one of the best people I ever knew, always putting his family first and doing what he has to do so they can have a nice life. Corey and I shared some of the same problems, and after my diagnosis is was nice to have somebody there that understands exactly what your going through. He would always ask me how I was doing, and if I was OK and that means a lot in this day and age.

“ I remember bike riding with Corey in the summer after dinner.
And I remember Corey playing catch with me.
I remember when we thought we lost our dog and the smile he had when we woke him up with her when we found her.
I remember him throwing me in the pool and I thought he was the strongest person.
I remember trying to watch alias with him at his house but he kept getting up to clean things and he had me laughing because he took out his window on his screen door to clean it. He was a good saleman because he got so into cleaning.
I remember him playing video games and laughing when I played mario cart because I moved my whole body with the turns.
I remember sitting around the fire outside for hours as he burned a bunch of papers.
I remember he gave the best hugs and he was so strong.
I remember he used to mock my laugh and make me laugh even more and I was just laugh and he would laugh harder and we couldnt stop.
I remember when he farted in a jar and closed the lid and had my mom smell it and she was so grossed out it was the funniest thing ever.
He loved to make everyone laugh and his smile was infectious.
I love you Corey and I hope to never forget the feel of your hug and the sound of your laughter.
