“ *My beautiful sister,
We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we can not see you, you our always by our sides. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*

“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes I watched you, and saw you pass away. Although I loved you dearly, I couldn't make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke my heart to prove to me, He only takes the BEST.

“ I met Chrissy for the first time when she was around 2, two and a half years old. Bright and energetic. She was the first child, person I had ever seen pass out fast asleep standing up. Her Dad Dennis and my late brother Max use to play chess late at night. On this particular night Crystal was with her parents at my brother's home. With her coat on, she was standing by the couch and fell forward, still on both feet, and was fast asleep. She always loved with her whole heart. This was such a shock and my hugs and prayers are with her family, her closet friends, and of course her Murray. He brought her great joy as well. Love Always...Wendy F.
