

Daniel Zink

July 10, 1958 - March 26, 2024

Daniel James Zink Jr. passed away on March 26th at 65 years of age.

Beloved husband of Cynthia (Cindy), dearest father to Heather Zink and Aaron Zink, dearest brother to David Zink (Patricia) and Michael Zink (Sherie), dearest son-in-law to Marquis and Norma Harris, and dearest brother-in-law to Mark Harris (Glenda), Matthew Harris (Mary) and Michael Harris. Dan is reunited in heaven with his recently passed father Daniel Zink Sr., his mother Shirley Zink, brother Mark Zink, and sister-in-law Carol Harris. He will be missed dearly by countless family members, extended family members and friends.

Dan Zink was born and raised in Sterling Heights Michigan where he graduated high school from Henry Ford, college from Macomb Community College, and Specs Howard School of Broadcast Arts. Dan was a DJ and had his own pilot's license, all before meeting the love of his life, Cindy, whom he has been married to for 35 years. Professionally, he worked as a design engineer in the automotive industry. After retiring, Dan had his own Christian Radio station called Z Radio The Mix and created his own coffee distribution company called Coffee Flavor Factory.

Dan loved vacationing at his cottage up north, spending time with family, and had many unique hobbies along with his love of playing the trumpet and videography. Dan was a kind, generous, and humorous man who loved the Lord and his family dearly. Dan was passionate about his faith in Jesus Christ and often talked about God's provisions throughout his life. Dan experienced many miracles through his health journey and has now found the ultimate healing. The family takes comfort in knowing that Dan is resting in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ and celebrating being reunited with his family and friends who have passed before him.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

“ Cindy,
I am sorry for your loss. I worked for Dan in the early 90's at Marrison. He was a great teacher. I later had the opportunity to hire him around 2008. I still remember him saying "do you want me to come in for an interview?" to which I said no, your hired. It was great to get back in communication with him at Community Christian Church the past few years. He is a wonderful man of God with a great sense of humor.

“ Cindy, Heather & Aaron,
I am sincerely sorry for your loss of your husband and father. There are so many great memories as we grew up together. He was a kind, loving, humble, humorous person. I pray you feel Jesus' loving arms wrapped around you and He provides you peace and comfort beyond our understanding. I'm praying for all you daily. Sending you love and hugs.

“ Cindy, I am so sorry to hear of Dan's passing. You both were wonderful friends and the greatest comfort to me during a time of significant stress. Dan always welcomed me with a smile, open arms, and joke. I hope he is at peace and that you and your family will be comforted with memories of all the good times and love that you have shared.

“ it's hard to pick out one memory when there's so many, Dan will be truly missed. But one of the biggest things I recall about him is his love for Jesus and his dedication to his family and church, when we were younger he was always a crazy guy you never knew what was going to happen being around him.

“ When my Mom was failing in the hospital and had to have a risky surgery, Dan and Cindy came to visit at the hospital. We were all gathered around her bed, not expecting her to survive, and Dan prayed the most beautiful and encouraging prayer with us. I'll never forget the peace it gave me. He was truly a special, godly man. Our prayers are with all of his family at this difficult time.
