“ Sincere Sympathy to Stan and entire Family. I just read Anne's tribute to Darlene, I felt the same way when I married her Brother Gerald- now she was my Sister I never had. I knew Darlene way before her Brother and I even started dating. She would come pick me up and we'd go shopping for shoes- black pointed toe flats we both wore. Then she'd say lets go get lunch- always the same, cup of coffee and a plate of french fries. One of my most fun memories was the Halloween before Gerald and I had our children Dana and Joe. Went to Darlene and Stan's where she fixed her and I a cocktail and out the door we went with it to walk with Mark and Eric so they could trick or treat. Jason wasn't born yet. So many laughs with her- she'll be missed so much. Anne and I both were Blessed to have had Darlene as a Sister. Gerald would say along with me, Rest In Paradise Dear Sis.

“ I was so happy when Stan married Darlene, I finally had the sister I never had. She gave me the emotional support when I bought my first car, a stick shift, which I really wasn't too adept at driving. She went with me to pick up my new car and we had quite a ride home! I remember all the good times on North Campbell when my nephew Mark was born - very precious memories - and later with Eric & Jason. Darlene was always there when you asked for help. And she really was a great grandmother. She didn't like to fly, but when I asked her go with me and take her granddaughters, Sophie and Isabelle, to Washington, D.C. she readily agreed - and we shared more great memories. Darlene did not have a baby shower for Mark or Eric, so when Jason was soon to be born, we gave her a baby shower. Just recently I told her I had looked at the pictures and told her how happy and radiant she looked. I wish I had access now to post some photos, unfortunately I can't. I am so sorry I am unable to pay my last respects and be there for my dear brother Stas. Her life was cut short, but I'm happy she didn't suffer. Family came first to Darlene. My deepest sympathy to Stas and the family. Rest in peace dear Darlene. ❤️🙏
