“ *Dear Pam and Robin,
We remember your Dad when we came to visit with Pam and Kevin in their old house. Your Dad would come over to the house after work very often to rock baby Katie in their rocking chair for an hour or so. He was so generous with his children and grandchildren and loved them very much. Also, he entertained his whole family on holidays with an abundance of food, merriment, and gifts. You couldn't have wanted a more caring and loving father. He will certainly be missed.*

“ Dear Robin and Pam,
I was your mom's best friend growing up and also after marriage to your dad. I loved both of them so much, we had some very wonderful and fun times. Robin I would take you to the mall and other places shopping to give your mom a break because Pam was so young at the time, I loved you girls so much. My love and loving thoughts go out to you girls at this time and also to all the family.
