“ My brother Dave had the sweetest smile. I feel so blessed that 2 days before he passed, we exchanged "I love you's" and enjoyed a meal together. I will miss him terribly. He was an honest man with integrity. He didn't compromise his values and had the strongest faith that is hard to see these days. He is loved and missed by many.

“ I was a customer of Detroit Pencil Co., and it was Dave's salesmanship that brought me in. He was the one salesman I enjoyed talking to! I had NO IDEA what a strong Catholic he was until now - so active in his church, Knights of Columbus and Right to Life community. I wish I had known him personally, I wish I had gotten the email from Detroit Pencil regarding his passing sooner. My deepest sympathies to his family. God Bless. - Jenifer Johnstone & the St. Isaac Jogues Community “ Shocked. I've only known Dave for a brief 2 years. I met him at a Right To Life Dinner and from there I would call him periodically for office supplies. Very honest man and easy to work with. My condolences to his family. My you find peace that surpasses all understanding. Eternal light shine upon him.

“ What happen? How that is possible? My heart goes out to David's Family, wife and girls and you... I'm out of words. I can't explain how traumatized I am. My whole body is shivering... He was a great man, hardworking, devoted to his family. He would come to eat at Luciano's and ask for me all the time. If I wasn't there, he wouldn't come. That's how loyal man he was... I'll pray to God to give his family the strength to deal with tragedy, especially his young daughters and wife. God bless them.

“ I have known Dave since his oldest daughter and my son started school at Walsh elementary together. We would always see each other at school events, talk about family, work or whatever topic came to mind. He was always so proud of his kids and all that they have accomplished so far in life.

I regret that I did not know him better. But I can say with certainty that if you knew nothing else about Dave, knowing how much he adored his family would be enough to tell you the kind of man he was.

The last time I saw him was at a graduation party over the summer. We teamed up in a game of horseshoes against two other mutual friends. We both stank at pitching that day. We joked about how bad we were, having a good time while getting soundly beaten. We said that we would get them next time in a rematch. Sadly that will have to wait until we meet again in gods loving embrace.

My family will pray for Dave and his family in this sad time. And while he will be forever missed by those who knew him, I for one will never feel anything but gratitude for having been lucky enough to have known such a good man.

“ Mr. Pardington was a natural go getter and leader. I worked along side him at many fundraisers for the Stevenson Marching Titans and was impressed by his encouragement and wonderful personality! Within minutes of meeting Mr. Pardington you knew the type of man he was...he was kind, he was good and a pleasure to be along side.

I am grateful for the opportunity to have known him.

David was a man to model after...he was dependable, supportive, friendly and carried leadership skills that guided many "new parents" through "new band experiences" with ease and grace. A skill that clearly came nature to him.

I pray for his children and wife to find peace in his calling home to his heavenly Father.

“ The news of Dave's passing grieves our family so deeply. He was not just our neighbor, he was the most kind, caring, and compassionate man who's love for his family and fellowman shined through his faith. The world is at a loss, but heaven has gained an angel.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of the sudden passing of "Mr. Pardington". Although I had worked on many millage elections, golfed with, and knew him personally, calling him "Mr. Pardington" was more out of respect for the man, husband, and father, rather than formality of our friendship. I had met Mr. Pardington while his girls attended Walsh Elementary. He was extremely proud of all four of them, and whenever there was a music concert, I could always count on the Pardingtons and the extended family to be front and center.

Mr. Pardington was a very knowledgeable, funny, and compassionate man whose faith played an important role in his life. Condolences to his immediate and extended families for I know he will be truly missed. May her rest in eternal peace.

“ David was a dear friend and fellow parishioner I will miss very much. Many of us will probably be perplexed as to how one man could be in so many places doing so many things, and always with that smile. He gave glory to God in living his vocation as a husband and father, with joy and attentiveness. He was always putting others first. To Catherine, Sarah, Veronica, and Mary Kate - hold fast to the greatest gift he gave you - his love and his Catholic faith. And, hold tight to all those jokes, even the corny ones ;)

“ A life taken from us too soon. I also had the honor of working with David at RVO. David always made me feel like we had known each other forever even though we only knew each other a short time. He is a truly caring person full of warmth and love for all. I feel blessed to have known David and will remember him always. My prayers and condolences to the Pardington family.

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear this news about David Pardington. He was truly one of the nicest, kindest men I ever met. He always was so interesting to talk with and was such a positive person. I had the pleasure of knowing him through his beautiful daughters. I taught one of them, Catherine. Everyone of his children was kind and caring, just like him. He was also a neighbor. We would have such nice visits when he was out for a walk (usually with one or more of the girls). Please know we are all better people by knowing him and that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I got the honor of working with David at Roosen, Varchetti & Olivier. I also got the privilege of seeing David's smiling face every now and then because we ordered office supplies from him at his current job. David is one of the kindest people that I have ever known, always asking how my kids were doing each time I saw him. Not only is he kind, he is one of the hardest workers and would do anything and everything for his family. David will be greatly missed. Sending lots of prayers to his family at this difficult time.
