“ Debbie was my sister. She was also my best friend. I miss her with every breath that I take, and wonder how I will ever survive her loss. So many times a day I think to myself; I can't wait to talk to Debbie today, to tell her this.....only to remember that I can no longer talk to her. I know God's grace is sustaining- and pray he will uphold us all as we try to go forward in our lives-comforted by the fact that we will see her again someday. You are forever with me Debbie!

“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Deborah, and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29). Until that time, please know you can rely on God for comfort (Pslams 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

Respectfully,
T. Cherry

“ Dearest Bruce, Josh & Joy, We only just heard about Debbie's long battle last week, and barely had comprehended it when we were told that she went "Home" on Monday. Although we know Debbie is singing choruses of praises in the presence of the Lord she so loved & so faithfully served, our hearts are so very heavy & broken for all of you. Debbie's strong faith was always an inspiration to me, and her warm "motherly love" & great kindness to son Peter during the boys' high school years always blessed me(AND Peter)so very much. Please know that your hurting hearts are in our prayers every day. Our love, Paula & Pete

“ Bruce, Josh and Joy, Rich and I were brokenhearted with the news of Debbie's passing. As you know she was a wonderful wife and mother as well as a friend to all who knew her. Her laugh was infectious and I can't imagine her reaction when she entered the presence of her King. Heaven received a beautiful angel on Monday and for that I am thankful knowing that I will be able to again see her in paradise. Due to my blood clots I am unable to travel and I am deeply saddened that I cannot come to see you at this time. Please know I will be in prayer throughout the calling hours and services that God grant you peace and understanding. Please know you are always welcome to visit any time just to get away. God Bless you all at this time. Love to you all, Judy and Rich

“ Dear Bruce & Family: We are so sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. We have been praying for and thinking about her and all of you since we first heard of her illness. While it has been a long time since we have seen you, we had good times at Troy and I remember the Christmas tree in your bedroom. Debbie will be missed but we know where she is and we know she would not want to come back. You continue to be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Bruce, Joy and Josh,
Our sincerest condolences on the passing of your wife and mother, Debbie. Her faithfulness and strong commitment to God's Word and her faith was a real testimony to many people. As I got the news yesterday morning, all I could think of was how much Debbie loved frilly, feminine things and what a sight heaven must have been for her when she first entered! She will be missed by many here on earth. We can only wait to see her again.
Love, John and Jen
