“ Dear Susan and Mike, I was saddened to hear of the passing of your mother. I sincerely wanted to pay my respects at the funeral but could not due to work deadlines. As a fellow teacher, I hope Aunt Della will understand. She, and you two, as well as Uncle Cal, were in my thoughts that day and many times since. I know that you two were the great joy of her life. I keep thinking of family gatherings, some in Warren, when we were children, and Aunt Della was a young mother. It saddens me to see Aunt Della and that generation of our extended family pass. I remember too some parties in St. Louis and at Higgins Lake they were all together and young and having lots of fun. I will miss Aunt Della a lot. Sincerely, Stephen Boyd

“ The Holmes Drive crowd. Army and dolls and Barbies! Who else but Mrs. Webster introduced me to library trips weekly in the summer, making chocolate chip cookies, of course eating the batter, how to sew, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches with sweet pickles, butterscotch candy in the white candy dish in the living room and cards on the screened in porch on Sunday nights in the summer. What great memories that will always be in my heart.

“ Dear Sue, Mike, Uncle Butch and family. I am saddened to hear about Aunt Della, but I know she is resting more peacefully now. Della was always friendly and upbeat and I miss her and Connie and the fun times they always brought with them. I will be spending time with mom and dad today and on the day of the funeral. My mom just lost her last sibling, Aunt Martha. It is difficult for them to make it, and dad is struggling very much so I thought it best I comfort him during this sad time. I miss all of you and am praying that you find comfort. Love, Mary Jane

“ Will always remember the fun sleepovers at your house, the long talks on the phone our parents allowed, the rides to school in inclement weather, the job organizing the private library your mom got for us and above all, the garbage disposal mess that your mom handled with good humor. Moms sure are a big part of who we are.
