

Dennis William Silvani

December 12, 1946 - April 5, 2016

Age 69.

Beloved son of Margaret and the late John.

Loving brother of 6 sisters and 8 brothers.

Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

When Dennis was a young man he wrote the following:

Have you ever wandered aimlessly
Have you ever walked alone in blue,
Pausing occasionally along the path
Just to remember people you knew
Have you thought things would have been different
If I hadn't lost my grip, bound of many opportunities about to slip
To dream of love and enchantment, to one whom you abide
You stretch your arms in longing and return them to your side
Have you ever denied a favor to a friendly had to shake
Does your heart cry out in - summer, spring, ego white song!
