

Diana Marie Morrone

January 28, 2016

Diana died at Royal Oak Beaumont at the age of 73 on January 28th, 2016. Two days prior, she celebrated a wonderful birthday with a room full of cards, pictures, flowers, plants, gifts and several friends and family.

Diana was born and grew up in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, but was a resident of Troy, Michigan at the time of her death.

She was preceded in death by her father Raymond Dominic Morrone, her mother Angelina Salvucci, brother Raymond Donald Morrone, and only daughter Lisa Shorkey. She also suffered the loss of a very special friend "Hippie John" this past year.

She is survived by her grandson Tanner Shorkey (and half-brother Carson), son-in-law Phil Shorkey, nieces Regina Lehotay (husband Peter Lehotay), Rita Randall (husband Frank Randall), and Damon Cardamone (wife Denise Cardamone), soul-mate Cheryl McLain, great-nieces and great-nephews Paul (and his son Sebastian), Olivia, Alayna, Thomas, Dominic, and Alexander, many cousins and a wide circle of very supportive friends.

Diana enjoyed listening to music, especially old Motown and Blues. Lover of animals, she was especially fond of her most recent dog and best buddy Spike! She would talk your ears off, if you asked about "the boys", Tanner and Carson. Recently she most enjoyed talking about how proud she was of her grandson's new job and how hard he was working. She had a varied and wide circle of friends in many different cities, with whom she spent much time with and who were always there when she needed a hand.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the family would be appreciated.

“ Diana will be deeply missed by "the girls." She was a kind, gentle and vibrant woman. Although Diana was 20+ years older than most of us, she partied, traveled and truly clowned with us for several years. It's hard to believe she's gone, but our memories will live on. She now has eternal peace. We shed happy tears when recalling some of her antics and stories of yesterday. She would often laugh so hard, tears would roll down her face. Priceless!! We send the deepest of sympathy to her family. Her love for you, especially Tanner, Carson and Spike carried her through some difficult times. Peace be with you. Please find comfort in knowing Diana, Momma D or Lady Di as we offend called her, shared these words the day before she died, "I know a lot of people love me. I'm blessed."
