

Dimitar Cvetanovski

February 22, 1942 - November 17, 2024

Dimitar Cvetanovski (82), passed away peacefully on November 17, 2024. Born in February 1942 in Bitola, Macedonia, he was the son of Vancho and Blaga Cvetanovski.

Dimitar (Jim) concluded his successful career at BASF in the role of OEM Process Manager Color, leaving a legacy of excellence in process management and team leadership.

Golf and bowling were more than hobbies for Jim; they were his way to connect with friends, relax, and express his competitive spirit. No matter the situation, Jim could always be counted on to share his favorite phrases; “Straight like arrow”, “I love this game”, “When your good your good” and “I hate this game”, instantly lightening the mood and bringing smiles to all who heard it.

His family was his world a devoted husband and father, and a grandfather who filled their lives with love and laughter.

He is survived by his wife, Pavlina, his children, Marina and Tommy (Sarah), three grandchildren, Samuel, Andrew and Lauren and his brother Mendo. Preceded in death by his parents and brothers; Boris, Tome, Tiro, George and Pece.
