“ I read this poem,I pasted it on face book,but I think it belongs here too.But I want to add something. Thank-you Delores,for being you and raising my best friend to be such a wonderful woman.We go through life thinking we are doing what we are sopose to do,and yet we make miricles in our wake.The love you gave your children was multiplied,and they were able to spread it around to all they have met It all starts with you,and is never ending I didnt know you well,but I do know your family,and it is a loving one.You have a wonderful legacy!

*A gentle wind blew cross the land
Reaching out to take a hand
For on the winds the angels came
Calling out a mother's name.*

*.....Left behind, the children's tears
Loving memories of the years
Of joy and love, a life well spent
And now to God a mother's sent.*

*On angel's wings, a heavenly flight
The journey home, towards the light
To those who weep, a life is gone
But in God's love, 'tis but the dawn.*

“ Dearest friends,
My heart aches for you. May God grant you comfort now and always. I sincerely feel your loss. When I first met Delores 44 years ago, she became a special person to me. As Mike and I became best friends she became an extension of my own family as did the rest of you. I regret that over the years we have not been in better contact with each other. Heaven has gained what we have lost.
