Dolores found her greatest joy in her children, grandchildren & great grandchildren. Dolores was always eager to open her home to family & friends. She enjoyed doing fill-in book, cards and bingo. She was an old movie buff, so much so, that when her kids were searching for the perfect new assisted living facility after the sale of her Clawson home, it HAD to include the Turner Classics movie channel or it was a "no go!"

Dolores was a woman of great faith. She attended Mass as often as physically possible, she was a Pro-Life Advocate and participated in many peaceful protests at local abortion centers throughout the years.

*Debbie, it so good to hear from you. I'll miss Mom a lot, she was sick for a long time. Her suffering is over.
I think of you often and hope & pray your doing well. Someday soon I hope we can all get together again and reminiscence about the good old days.
We love and miss you

“ We loved getting to know beautiful Dolores. From those many shared Bible studies years ago, to seeing her smiling face at Holy Mass, to all the family parties shared, it was always a treat to be with Gramma Dolores! May the Lord now be welcoming His good and faithful servant! Requiescat in pace.

Love,
Bob, Andrea, Bella, Lily, Ceci, and Max

She was a beautiful and special person. I was blessed to consider her my “Mom #2” during my high school years with Annette. She was always happy to have a big group of us kids over and made us feel welcome, each and every time. Heaven just gained a Angel. May she Rest In Peace.

“ Aunt Dolores was always very supportive to me. She helped get my first job at the real estate office where she worked. She helped me be more confident. She was a very loving person in our family. She always got a kick out of my husband Norm.
