

Dolores Smylntycky

January 2, 2024

Dolores was one of four children born to Polish American parents. She graduated from high school and worked for the government at the Missile Command as a secretary. She met her husband at his brother's wedding. She was married to her husband for more than 54 and a half years. She enjoyed making apple pies and pierogies with her husband. She also enjoyed going to bingo, the movies, and Detroit Tigers' baseball games. She had a son that married and had two beautiful granddaughters. She's loved and will be missed by all.
