PS

“ I did not set out in search of it, but want you to know I won the mother-in-law lottery. From the time we met on Easter day three decades ago, you have been kind, caring and accepting, celebrating, inspiring. You are and will always be the definition of grace.

I would gladly make more five-hour trips and tolerate Hallmark movies if I could have you again in the living room that is silent now. We are aware though, the path you were chosen to be taken on has freed the pain, and is beset with an abundance of beautiful butterflies that made you happy.

With you every moment was a joy, every occasion a memory. I feel so proud and honored to be part of your family that meant so much to you.

Love and peace, Parth

“ Dolores (Laurie) was one of my closest friends. I've known her since we were teenagers, so at least 65 years.

When I first went away to college, Laurie would send me long letters which were light hearted and humorous. Her letters made my homesickness much more bearable. Thank you Laurie. I always called her Laurie.

I am heartbroken that I can no longer call her phone and talk for an hour. She was a dear friend and I will miss her.

I first met Dolores when we were working at McCullough Lee and I asked her if she would do me a favor just go to a dance with my good friend Al. I never expected them to be married well over 50 years, thought it would be one date
