“ Aunt Mae was so full of life. She was my God Mother and I remember once when she and Uncle Bill came to visit us in Chicago she gave me some pant suits in bright spring colors. I don't recall - maybe it was my birthday, first communion...just not sure, but I remember loving those new clothes and feeling so special. Aunt Mae would end up attending my wedding many many years later and be the life of the party. She was awesome on the dance floor. What an honor to have her there.
