“ Don was an avid gardener and would work in the perennial garden on Belle Isle fighting the weeds and trying to spruce it up for the Conservatory. He could be found there even on the hottest days working away. I always made it a point to visit with him. He also had a love for chrysanthemums and would donate plants to our Plant Sale which raised money for the Conservatory. A wonderful, giving person. Prayers for his family as I know he will be sorely missed.- Jan Ellison, Belle Isle Conservancy
