He was always there to lend a hand whenever someone needed help or just an ear to listen.

He had a passion for music; was especially fond of jazz, enjoyed playing his drums, he even played for U.S.O. shows in Japan and local venues as well during his life. He loved his sweets and the pies that Nancy made for him.

Don will be remembered for his kindness to all, his big heart, loyalty and complete devotion to his family.

He will be missed but forever in our hearts.

In lieu of flowers, donations would be appreciated to The Wounded Warriors Project.
