*For the first 3 years of my life, Donna Jean and I shared living space, prams and toys at Grandma and Grandad Jee's house on Sandwich St, surrounded by parents, grandparents and Aunt Mary and Uncle Chuck. I remember none of that of course, but I do remember always looking up to my older cousin. She was 3 months older after all. I have pictures of us in little plaid kilts Aunt Mary made. Wish I lived closer because I would have been at her funeral for sure. Rest In Peace, dear cousin. You will be missed.
Love, Norma Jee*

“ When hear that mom had passed away yesterday we were deeply saddened by the news. We are still human even though we weren't talking. This was still Tim's mom and Emily's mimi. We are thinking of dad at this time and wishing him strength and prayers during this time. We offer our condolences to the rest of the family including our daughter who lost her mimi today. My she rest in peace. Tim and Naomi
