“ A la familia de Senora Lopez,

Lo siento mucho por su perdida. Que el Dios de todo consuelo les da ayuda durante este periodo dificil. Gracias a Él, tenemos la esperanza de ver a nuestros seres queridos de nuevo en condiciones buenas en la tierra muy pronto (segun 1 Corintios 1:3, 4, y Juan 5:28, 29).

“ Mom Lopez opened her home and heart to me as a teenager. There was always a warm meal and love at her table along with Marie and the boys. It was only fitting when it became time to marry mom and dad Lopez were our sponsors at the church. Dreading those classes at st marks church turned out to be a ball. They celebrated our marriage and family. She was always there with hugs and smiles. I will miss those smiles and the twinkle in her eyes. You are now an angel and at night when I see those stars I know you watch over all of us. Thank you for sharing yourself and your family with me. I wait to see you again. Love you mom Lopez!!!

“ Dorothy and her husband always sat in front of us at church and we always thought what a strong woman she was. Always smiling,,greeting everyone.. She has been missing from that seat for a while now and now she is at rest with her husband. God Bless and may peace of heart be with the family. The Cyrulewski Family
