

Edith Brown

October 21, 1924 - April 11, 2018

Edith McKenzie Brown was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and even a great-great grandmother and a wonderful friend to so many people. Mom was a woman of deep faith, and she spent every night before she slept reading His word. She was also a wonderful cook and excelled at baking and making candy for her friends and family to give to them on any given holiday.

She was born Edith McKenzie in Dafter, Michigan on October 21, 1924. In July 1948, she married Robert L. Brown, who predeceased her, and they had five children: Ellen (Dennis) Boulanger, Carol Pudlo (deceased), James (Lyn) Brown, Peter (Rose) Brown, and June Brown. Grandmother of Chris and Nick Mancuso, Zachary Brown, Lauren Brown, Evan Boulanger, Bettye Ann Kittle, Robert A Brown, Shelley McClaren and Joseph Cosens. Great grandmother of Evelyn, Marielle, Isla, Kylie, Connor, Colton, Chelsea, Scott, Jacob and Joey. Great great grandmother of Landon.

The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name sake;

Yea though I walk through the valley of death

I shall fear no evil for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparedst a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalm 23 KJV

Mom, we will miss you!
