“ Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear Edward Clark. I can only imagine the pain you must feel. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible: 1) A loving God would never take our loved ones: (James 1:13) ?With evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.? 2) God will comfort you: (Psalm 34:18) ?Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves.? 3) Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, gives us a wonderful hope, namely living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29) ~ Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

“ Ed, Words cannot express how much I am going to miss you ! I think about the times we came to visit and all the fun me you Tina and Jean had. How delicious your BBQ was and how good Jean's banana pudding was. When we went to the park in the snow and how me and Jean remarked on how much you and your daughter looked alike and walked alike. The visits you made here to Virginia and the good times we had with the grandchildren and great grandbaby. I wish you could of stayed longer.... it's so hard to believe you are gone from this world, but you will never be gone from our hearts...No that you will continue to live inside your loving daughter Tina, your loving grandchildren Kayla and Kelly and your great grandbabies Sequoyah and Naikayah....And of course me your loving daughter-in-law....

“ Grandad
We know you can no longer stay with us,
you fought long and hard to be with us.
We know you now watch over and protect us,
Although we cannot hear your voice or see your smiling face,
We know deep down in our hearts that you have not left us.
Instead everyday you surround us with the singing of the birds,
the rising of the sun and the falling of night.
So many broken hearts are left behind,
But in our deepest despair our greatest comfort lies knowing that you are now at peace with the angels and God.
So as times passes our tears will dry,
our hearts will mend
but our love for you will never end.
