“ Teddy and I were childhood BFF's, glued together from age 4 through 18 and then life took us in different directions as adults. My heart is broken none the less and I'm so very sad to hear the news. My thoughts are with you Susie and Barb, I'm so sorry for your loss! Love, Carla

“ When he lived with my husband and I we would sit out on the front porch all day just talking and watching the kids he was also their babysitter and taught them so much and for that I'm so grateful for knowing him. We lost touch the past few years but I have known him for over 30yrs and we could pick up the phone and talk like no time has passed. He will truly be missed by all who knew him R.I.P my friend Love you 💔
