“ We were so blessed to have known Eddie as a very kind, happy, and sincere neighbor. He was loved very much by his family and will be greatly missed. We enjoyed greeting him with a cheerful hello or stopping to talk to him and Aileen as they loved sitting on their porch enjoying life and nature. Eddie was a quiet gentleman but never failed to give us a big wave when he seen us outdoors. They say God only takes the best, and with that I know that Eddie was greeted with open arms into the gates of Heaven. May you rest in peace our friend, for we all will meet again. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to the entire family. Willis and Denise Wily

“ Dear Aileen and family - Our deepest condolences to all of you for the loss of your husband, dad, friend. It is vey difficult to lose someone so very dear and loving to you. Remember Ed is now with all of you in spirit and never beyond the reach of your prayers. Find comfort now knowing neither time, nor distance, nor physical separation can diminish your heart and soul connection. He was truly blessed with a loving caring family. God Bless.
