“ Dear Family, I'm so sorry to read of the loss of your dear husband, father and grandfather Mr. Papcun . Please accept my sincere sympathy. I pray you find comfort like I have in the following Bible promises. Jesus Christ, through God's Kingdom will soon do away with death forever. God ?will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.??Isaiah 25:8. ? Health care will not be an issue because ?no resident will say: ?I am sick.???Isaiah 33:24.? Grieving will not be necessary, for ?death will be no more.??Revelation 21:4

“ Dear Grandpa, I am grateful for the lifetime of memories I had with you, and especially for the last week I spent with you and grandma. Words cannot explain how appreciative I am for the love, support and happiness you have provided me, and I am thankful for you. You were the kindest person I knew, and you are an inspiration to all of us to demonstrate such kindness going forward. The priest's homily on servant leadership was the greatest compliment one could achieve in life, and I certainly hope I can follow in your footsteps. Thank you for being the special person you are. Wishing you eternal love and peace, Andrea (and Chris)

“ Dear Dad,
I love you so very much. You always placed everyone before yourself. I know that you were the kind of person that if you were in a line, you would look over your shoulder and offer your place because you found true happiness in helping others. You now have gone in front of "us", and we know you will be ready and waiting for us when we see you again. I spoke to you late last night when I gazed into the clear night sky. The stars appeared so bright, and I felt your presence. I miss you Dad. Keep watching over us. I hope that I have made you proud. Your loving daughter, Terri
