“ Bernie, and family,

I was so sad to hear of Eileen's passing, I always liked her. I will remember fondly the get-togethers at Christmas and at other times of the year at various homes within the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.

“Bernie, I remember stopping by your parents house just before you graduated from high school. Eileen and a couple of friends were practicing dance moves in the living room to the latest Shirelles recording. She was always so pretty and so nice. That's what struck me then and always. You and she we're like Danny and Sandy from "Grease" complete with the black leather jackets, the suede heeled boots, and you with slicked back hair in da. You two are truly soulmates." Remember listening to her describe to my mother how in the summer your hair would almost turn blonde with the Sun. Only someone "hopelessly devoted to you" would notice that. My heart is broken with yours. Cousin John Dameron.

“ We had So much fun growing up, visiting on weekends and even weekdays. For some reason though, memory that pops up the most is riding bikes up and down the hills near your house. Oh yeah, and making the prank phone calls from your basement phone! Do you have Prince Albert in a can? Is your refrigerator running? And our favorite, the runaway electric lawnmower! Oh my gosh, we were rotten, but laughed so much! I'm so glad to have had Eileen in my life. Cousins....so special.
