“ Christie, Joanne, Phil and Diane (and Dawn), I am so sorry to hear about Aunt Betty, and regret that I will not be able to come home to see you all. Know that I will be thinking about you guys, and remembering all the fun we had over the years, and how much your Mom played a big part in my life. I will never understand why she put up with me staying at the 14 Mile Road house so much in the good old days - I know I was a pain in the butt - but she never let on that she might think the same of me. Christie, you will remember, but you younger guys won't...Lynn and I thought it was quite hilarious to (repeatedly) drop a plastic spider on a string through the floor vent upstairs when your Mom would walk by in the kitchen. She always jumped and laughed the first few times we did it, beyond that - not so much! I also recall her making the BEST hamburgers, as we all crowded around the kitchen table - with me making it even more crowded. I could go on and on - remember all the haircuts and perms she gave us? Shared baths? Drying our hair by the register in the living room? PB&J sandwiches to take on our "picnics" down the lane? She deserved an award. Much love to you all from sunny Nevada, Nancy.
