

Elwood K. Baker

September 5, 1931 - December 29, 2023

Elwood Keith Baker, age 92, passed away December 29, 2023.

Born to the late Emma and the late Robert Baker on September 5, 1931.

Beloved husband of the late Betty Baker for 50 wonderful years.

Loving father of Darlene (the late Edward) Sekol, Nancy (Todd) Oliver, and Audrey (Jerry) Stolicki.

Treasured grandfather of the late Jason Simonis, Lisa (Patrick) Karpowski, Rachelle (Michael) Savalli, Keith (Lori) Oliver, Logan Oliver, Joe (Chelsea) Oliver, Kevin Oliver, Devin Marshall, and Cody Marshall.

Cherished great-grandfather of Jax Karpowski, Vera Savalli, Poppy Oliver, Bella Oliver, and Joe Oliver.

Dear brother of the late Robert Baker, the late Donald Baker, the late Raymond Baker, and Gerald Baker.

Beloved companion of four legged friend, Sadie.

Elwood proudly served his country as an Army Veteran, in the Korean War. He has always been a very hardworking man, constantly doing cement, drywall, and plaster work. If someone needed something fixed, he was always there to help. Elwood enjoyed traveling to Florida and Arizona, but his favorite place was on his boat at his cottage on Lake James. He also loved to play card games and was a huge animal lover, especially his furry companion, Sadie. Elwood loved his family with everything he had and he will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

“ Some good memories to share....we would go to lunch with my brother and Beverly once a week. He would always order a Strawberry shake. When we moved to Arizona Elwood would always tell me how much he missed my Christmas cookies. My brother was a perfectionist with his work. When we used to work together he would go back and touch up my work.....we love and miss you brother El. Jerry & Ellen

“ We remember when Elwood would come out to the fair and visit the grandchildren. He was there to support them, help and always had a wonderful warm smile on his face 🙏❤️
