“ We have so many wonderful memories from childhood and through the years. We will never forget her cherry nut and lemon poppy-seed bread... pizza and playing cards in the kitchen, and holiday dinners with your own bottle of pop and candy in dishes. Was there anything like watching Aunt Emily and Jane dancing together, like two spinning tops?! As we have all grown older, Aunt Emily has enriched our lives by how much she truly cared for all of us. Blessfully, she is at peace, happily bowling with Uncle Stas and getting after him to watch what he eats. We will treasure these memories, always.
