“ Mr. Rice,

I'm terribly sorry to hear about the passing of your beloved wife. I remember you talking about her during religion class senior year of high school. You always had wonderful things to say about her and I could tell how special she was to you. Unfortunately, I have had a lot of experience with losing loved ones in my young life. But it is through those experiences that we come out stronger and more appreciative of the lives around us. May God bless you, your family and everyone who knew your wife and may God have mercy on Mrs. Rice's soul.

“ Dear Hal & Family,

You dear Emily was such a sainted lady. Only knowing her thru Notre Dame, I still remember her closeness to St. Sebastian in Dearborn Heights. Please accept my sympathy and she will be in my prayers and thoughts as the days go by.

“ We, Marist Fathers and Brother Louis, were very saddened to hear of Emily's falling asleep in the Lord last Saturday morning. Our deepest condolences to you, Harold, and to David, Maria, Terri and all the members of your extended family.

I offered my Mass yesterday for Emily's repose, and Emily will be remembered at our Irish Week Liturgy this morning.

Harold, you know you always have a home here with us among the Marists and at NDPMA. We are praying for your peace of mind and soul on the occasion of this great loss.

Blessings and Peace,
