“ Although I'm not acquainted with your family I'd like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss of loved one Eugene Allossery 2008. People don't realize that as time elapses the pain still is felt from a loss. It is my hope that your family can take comfort in learning that Jesus Christ, through God's Kingdom will soon do away with death forever. God will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.??Isaiah 25:8. We also have a loving hope to see our dead loved ones again, (Acts 24:15) and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Lastly a loving God would never take someone from people that love them.?With evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.? (James 1:13). These thoughts have comforted me during loss and I hope it helps your family too

“ To Denise, Fawne, Geneo, and Justin my condolences on your loss. It's difficult sometimes to understand God's purpose, why he takes some but not others, heals some but not others, but whatever God's purpose is you can be sure that Gene is in a wonderful place now where he feels no pain and he is with his dad/grandfather. I've known your dad and his brothers for forty years. We went through our high school years together. After that I joined the Navy and started my life but I always kept in touch with your dad.....there was something about that guy I loved.....Denise I'm sending you a couple of BIG CYBER HUGGS OOOO.....OOOO. I promise I will stay in touch.

“ Dear Allossery family, sorry to hear of the passing of Eugene. I know this is a challenging time for the family. We all want to live, and we want to enjoy life with those we love. It's only natural that we desire to see our dead loved ones again. The Bible teaches us that those that have passed will have the chance to live again. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will...come out." (John 5:28,29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for humans. Hopefully the scriptures can bring great comfort during your mourning.
