“ Carol Dahl (Burlager) and Sue Di Noto (Burlager) send deepest sympathies. We are the daughters of Margaret Durnion-Burlager and Bern Burlager. Unfortunately, Covid 19's numbers and health issues prevent us from attending in person but know we are there in spirit.

We have fond memories of Sunny as being a funny man with a serious side as well. Our parents spoke of what a hard worker he was and just a genuine good guy.

We will keep him and his family in our prayers.

“ I only have the fondest memories of Geno. He was a great mentor to me when I was first entering the trade. Geno never went up a ladder empty handed. Now that he's at the top of the ladder of life, he doesn't leave us empty handed but full of joyful memories of hard work and good times. Rest in peace "babe", enjoy the Kentucky derby you got the best seat in Paradise

Thank you. My dad was a very hard worker and his passion for horse racing. 🐎 It is only fitting we say our last goodbyes on the first Saturday in May. Derby Day.

“ My dad always had a smile. I am going to miss him but I know he is with his grandson Chris and that gives me peace.

“ My dad was a great family man, and the best girl dad. He was surrounded by girls first 2 grandkids Nicole & Amanda. Then finally a boy my son Brian was born. I was in the hospital thinking how happy and excited my dad was going to be. A boy who looks so much like his grandpa it was a gift from God. Great moments in my life. 🙏💙
