“ So many beautiful memories of my Aunt Evelyn. I remember her and my mom talking for hours on the phone at least once a week when we were young kids. Her taking part in the Christmas sing-a-long at grandma's "12 Days of Christmas", and she sang 5 Golden Rings! and the laughter would ring. She always liked seeing myself and sisters all together and give us that pretty smile. Love and Miss you, Aunt..until we meet again..

So many years ago, we shared hymns together on the SS Cyril and Methodius choir. She was a ray of sunshine each time we were together. We will miss her warm smile, she was so warm and peaceful. Rest well dear Evelyn, May perpetual life shine upon you.
